

Shape the Future of Education and Maximize Your Students' Potential

See how Imagine Sunday System improves your students' reading outcomes

Imagine Sunday System is a proven, Orton-Gillingham approach to reading intervention that offers structured, systematic, multisensory reading instruction.

Benefits of using Imagine Sunday System

COMPREHENSIVE, EVIDENCE-BASED SUPPORT

- Offers stage-based content and multisensory instruction
- Grounded in science of reading research

TARGETED INSTRUCTION TO MEET DIVERSE STUDENT NEEDS

- Instruction focuses on skill or stage, rather than age or group
- Designed for multitiered systems of support (MTSS)
- Allows for differentiation with ease, so that even new teachers can confidently support all students

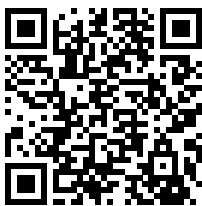

Looking for a reading curriculum for your students?

Imagine Learning is offering a unique opportunity to access Imagine Sonday System by participating in a collaborative research study in the 2025–2026 school year. District research partners will receive top-tier professional development, customer support, and valuable data on student outcomes.

Shape the future of education by participating in research with the potential to transform digital education nationwide. The data collected will help schools across the country implement best practices for digital learning.
