

What is Heart Work?

Teaching has always required heart, but today's educators are faced with challenges never seen before. As technology reshapes classrooms and uncertainty defines the world beyond them, teachers are being asked to navigate constant change while still meeting the needs of every student. Heart Work tells that story — of the collective effort to keep going.

Launching October 21, Heart Work is an honest profile of America's educators, capturing the raw stories unfolding in today's classrooms. Each collection explores a different challenge in education, confronting the reality of change and the courage it takes to embrace it.
