BRING SOCIAL STUDIES TO LIFE WITH TRAVERSE[®]

ACCESS TRAVERSE THROUGH A RESEARCH PARTNERSHIP AND SEE ITS EFFECT

Traverse is a comprehensive social studies curriculum for grades 6–12 that builds knowledge in history, economics, geography, and government through powerful media and meaningful instructional support.

ENGAGE TODAY'S LEARNERS WITH MEDIA-RICH EXPERIENCES

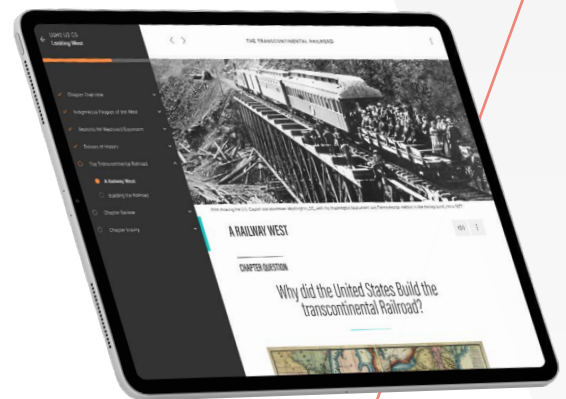

Bring social studies to life with more than 1,500 high-quality sources and innovative video formats, like Traverse 360, QuickTalk, and The Beat. Interactive tools — including 3D objects, maps, timelines, and Time Tunnels — keep students actively engaged and deepen content understanding.

FLEXIBLE DESIGN, BUILT FOR REAL CLASSROOMS

Traverse includes both print and digital formats, making it easy to adapt to any classroom model. The curriculum is customizable to meet the needs of each school or district, with classroom-ready content, embedded formative assessments, and real-time data that support responsive teaching and targeted instruction. Built around the principles of high-quality instructional materials (HQIM), Traverse ensures coherence, rigor, and accessibility while supporting learning that prepares students for civic engagement.

EMPOWER STUDENTS TO BECOME ACTIVE CITIZENS

Traverse supports rigorous social studies instruction by building key skills in inquiry, historical thinking, and research. Chapter-based inquiry projects help students connect the past to real-world issues and develop the tools to become informed, active citizens.
